Sustainable living with HOPE!

How do you care for the environment? Do you make a conscious effort to live sustainably? Do you recycle, reuse and repurpose?

If you are one of the growing number of Australians wanting to create a more sustainable future, we invite you to join our national organisation, Householders' Options to Protect the Environment Inc. (HOPE) to learn more about how you can adopt simple, sustainable living practices.

Joining HOPE is free-of-charge and open to individuals, families, businesses and community organisations.

So, what does HOPE do?

HOPE offers practical solutions and simple steps on how you can live more gently on Earth. We empower people to be more thoughtful about their environmental footprint and to make progressive changes at home and in their community. We provide:

- Access to information about current environmental issues;
- Support for education, including suggestions on how to tackle these issues; and
- Practical examples of how easily it can be done.

How can you make a difference?

- Take notice of the environmental issues at home and in the wider community;
- Use the resources available around you, including technology and community networks; and
- Lead by example by reducing your consumption and adopting other sustainable practices.

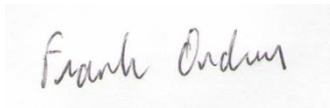

HOPE offers a range of resources, including 'helpful hints' brochures and runs a variety of practical workshops and meetings throughout the year. Through education, HOPE work's to inspire people to 'think globally, act locally'.

As the need to live sustainably continues to become more crucial, HOPE is looking to strengthen their network and grow their membership and supporter base.

You can join the growing movement that genuinely cares about the environment!

For more information or to become a member, contact HOPE on (07) 4639 2135 or office@hopeaustralia.org.au.
